

BLACK MOUNTAIN

Black Mountain Management has openings for the position of Maintenance Engineer with Master's degree in Mechanical/Industrial Engineering or related field and with at least two years' experience in pinpointing and efficiently allocating hydrocarbons via production forecasting using historical data and gathering and analyzing data relative to well performance.

Duties: Engineering solutions that include resolution of root-cause failure issues of on field equipment's and meet industry standards; Investigating the issues for the well workover or equipment workover using root cause analysis tool and providing relevant recommendations to prevent reoccurrence in a cost-effective manner; Maintaining effective lines of communication across the team including the inspection group, maintenance, operations, and process engineering; Assisting inspectors and materials engineers in predicting failures of well due to mechanical disruption of the well head and proactively provided solution; and providing continuous technical support and troubleshooting for maintenance and operations of existing/acquired asset and equipment.

40 hrs./week. M-F.

Job location: Ft. Worth, Texas.

Must be authorized to work in the United States.

Mail resumes to:
Black Mountain Management
ATTN Amanda Reid
500 Main St.
Suite 1200
Fort Worth, TX 76102

Tel: 817.698.9901
Fax: 817.698.9902

500 Main Street, Suite 1200
Fort Worth, Texas 76102

blackmtn.com